The University of Wisconsin-Sheboygan offers a high-quality University of Wisconsin education in a supportive environment where you will work directly with professors who are dedicated to teaching. UW-Sheboygan combines the advantages of a small college with the resources of the world-class University of Wisconsin System. That makes UW-Sheboygan your best path to a college degree and unlimited career opportunities.
Tuition and fees are $5,096 for 2013-14 (two semesters). Students attending UW-Sheboygan will:

• Save thousands of dollars in tuition each year.
• Be able to cover most or all of their educational expenses with financial aid, often without loans.
• Keep their current jobs while completing a degree.
• Live at home and save up to $8,800 annually on room and board.

Guaranteed Transfer Program

Students who start at UW-Sheboygan as freshmen are guaranteed admission to any University of Wisconsin four-year campus as juniors if they meet the requirements of the Guaranteed Transfer Program. Transferring students have the same rights and privileges as those who started at the four-year campus. For more information, visit uw.edu/transfer/guarantee.

How to pay for college

Financial aid can help you meet the difference between the cost of college and your (or your family’s) ability to pay. There are four types of financial aid:

- Scholarships (no repayment): UW-Sheboygan awards at least 75 scholarships totaling more than $100,000 every year to local students.
- Grants (no repayment)
- Loans (must be repaid): Fewer than half of UW-Sheboygan students take out student loans.
- Work-study jobs on campus

To qualify for financial aid, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) available at fafsa.ed.gov. Be sure to write in the UW Colleges code #003897.

You may apply for financial aid anytime after January 1 of the year you plan to attend. You must submit all forms by April 1 to receive funding priority. More than half of UW-Sheboygan students take out student loans, work-study jobs on campus.

Credit transfer

Visit the Transfer Information System (TIS) website (tis.uwsa.edu) to see:

- how the courses you take at UW-Sheboygan will transfer
- which courses will fulfill specific requirements at your intended transfer campus
- which schools offer your intended major

UW Colleges is a member of the North Central Association and is fully accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. Therefore, credits earned at UW-Sheboygan will also be accepted by public and private colleges and universities in Wisconsin and throughout the country.

Degree paths

Associate of Arts and Science degree

The two-year Associate of Arts and Science (AAS) degree:

- Allows students time for academic exploration while fulfilling essential core courses
- Teaches fundamental, life-long skills in written and oral communication, mathematics, critical thinking and teamwork
- Provides the foundation for more than 200 majors
- Allows students to choose an emphasis in 26 specific disciplines, such as engineering, nursing, business, education, music, psychology, and more, thus incorporating important required courses that will apply to a bachelor’s degree in that field.

ONLINE CLASSES TOO!

Need to fit classes in around work or other commitments? UW-Sheboygan students can take classes online through UW Colleges Online. More at online.uwc.edu.

Bachelor’s degrees

Begin a bachelor’s degree by earning the first 60 credits or more at UW-Sheboygan, completing the associate degree along the way. The AAS can be structured to include all of the general education requirements and pre-professional, foundation courses needed for most four-year degrees.

Students finish their bachelor’s degree by making a seamless, virtual transfer to one of the many degree completion outreach programs offered by four-year institutions in the UW System. Most important, students can complete any of these programs without ever commuting to the partner campus.

Course delivery formats, depending on the degree program, include face-to-face at UW-Sheboygan, online, live video-conferencing or streaming video. Advisors from several of the partner universities hold regular office hours on the Sheboygan campus. Bachelor degree opportunities include, but are not limited to:

- Business Administration
- Early Childhood and Special Education
- Engineering (mechanical & electrical)
- Health Information Management & Technology
- Human Services
- Nursing
- Organizational Administration
- Sustainable Management and many others

Bachelor’s degree opportunities are expanding, so check with a Student Affairs advisor (920-459-6633) for the most current information.
how to apply

READY – How to apply
