Join us for a delicious and educational walking food tour of Chicago's Chinatown! Explore the remarkable and historic ethnicity, culture and foods that define Hong Kong and mainland China as you taste authentic Canton, Mandarin and Szechuan cuisine from five Chinese owned and operated restaurants, food stores and ethnic bakeries. All food servings are enough for a hearty lunch.

WHAT TO EXPECT:
One-of-a-Kind Food Tastings – Our guided Chinatown Food Tour visits five sit-down tasting locations in the historic Chinatown community. Full portion samples, enough for a large lunch or light dinner, are included in the ticket price and offer Chinese food delicacies from the Canton, Mandarin and Szechuan regions.

Historic & Cultural Experience – Between samples, you’ll receive a behind-the-scenes look at Chicago’s Chinatown neighborhood with visits to intriguing cultural, religious and historic landmarks. Your informative guide will share their expertise of local customs, eclectic folklore and authentic Chinese specialty stores.

While we visit a total of five tasting locations and restaurants on the Chinatown Food Tour, three of them are sit-down tastings that last 30-45 minutes each, allowing plenty of time to carefully observe the pageantry and traditional etiquette of ancient Chinese customs as each meal is served at the dining table while savoring full portion dishes.

Included in this tour are: Triple Crown: Top-rated Canton cuisine and Hong Kong style Dim Sum restaurant; Lao Sze Chuan: America’s premiere Sze Chuan style cuisine and family restaurant; Ten Ren Tea & Ginseng Co.: Authentic Chinese loose leaf tea and organic ginger house; Saint Anna Bakery: Traditional Chinese-style baked goods, desserts and pastries; and Lao Beijing: Award-winning Mandarin style cuisine and Beijing Peking Duck restaurant.
